

The Cairo

Bulletin.

CAIRO, ILLINOIS, OCTOBER 13, 1870.

ONLY DAILY PAPER IN EGYPT.

BY JOHN H. OBERLY & CO.

From the Address of Democratic Congressmen Let there be no discussion about minor matters; no time lost in discussion of dead events; no manifestation of narrow or proscriptive feeling; no sacrifice of the cause to gratify personal ambition or resentment.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.
FOR CONGRESS—STATE AT-LARGE,
GEN. WILLIAM B. ANDERSON,
OF Jefferson County.
FOR STATE TREASURER,
CHARLES RIDGLEY,
OF Sangamon County.
FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
CHARLES FRISKE,
OF Peoria County.
FOR PENITENTIARY COMMISSIONER (LONG TERM),
GEN. FRANCIS T. SHEPHERD,
OF Cook County.
FOR PENITENTIARY COMMISSIONER (SHORT TERM),
THOMAS REDMOND,
OF Adams County.
FOR CONGRESS THIRTEENTH DISTRICT,
COL. JOHN M. CRENSHAW, of White Co.
FOR SENATORS, 1ST DISTRICT,
R. E. GIBSON, of Gallatin County,
THOMAS A. E. HOLCOMB, of Union Co.
FOR REPRESENTATIVE—1ST DISTRICT,
H. WATSON WEBB,
OF SHERRILL.
ALEXANDER H. IRVIN,
OF MONROE.
JOHN H. GORMAN,
OF MONROE.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEES.
Congressional Committee, 13th District.
J. B. LUKAS, Chm., Charleston, Gallatin Co.
T. F. BOUTON, Sec., Madison.
M. A. BATES, Wm., Madison.
G. W. WALL, Perry.
JAMES MACKIN, Saline.
D. P. CLARK, Pope.
J. B. WILLIAMS, White.
NEIL C. BURNS, Madison.
JNO. W. CARTER, Madison.
A. REDMOND, Johnson.
G. W. ANDERSON, Jackson.
C. W. R. CURTIS, Knox.
C. W. WILKINSON, Tazewell.
JOHN LANKFORD, Adams.
Y. BROWN, Alexander.
Perry County Committee, 1st District.
H. P. WHEELER, Sec., Alexander.
N. P. HOLCOMB, Gallatin.
L. J. BENFORD, Madison.
W. L. HAMILTON, Peoria.
W. B. MOORE, Saline.
JNO. BROWN, Johnson.
J. F. GIBBS, Madison.
R. F. CLARK, Pope.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.
Col. Creb's Appointments.

The Hon. John M. Creb, Democratic candidate for Congress, will address the citizens of Johnson county, at the following times and places:
Friday, Saturday, Monday and Tuesday, October 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th.
Johnson County.
Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th.
Pope County.
Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 17th, 18th and 19th.
Madison County.
Thursday and Friday, October 20th and 21st.
Perry County.
Saturday and Sunday, October 22nd and 23rd.
Alexander County.
Tuesday and Wednesday, October 24th and 25th.
Harris County.
Thursday and Friday, October 26th and 27th.
JOINT DISCUSSIONS.
New Market, Gallatin Co., Saturday Oct. 29th.
Metropolis, Madison Co., Wednesday, Nov. 2d.
Joplin, Union Co., Friday, Nov. 4th.

Hon. T. A. E. Holcomb's Appointments.

Hon. Thomas A. E. Holcomb, Democratic candidate for the House, will speak at the following times and places:
Gallatin, Pope county, Oct. 8th, at 10 o'clock p.m.
Floyd's Store, Pope county, Oct. 10th at 2 o'clock p.m.
Harris County, Oct. 11th, at 2 o'clock p.m.
Harris County, Oct. 12th, at 2 o'clock p.m.
Harris County, Oct. 13th, at 2 o'clock p.m.
The members of the Senatorial Committee in each of the above counties, as well as the local Democratic Committee, will please make all necessary arrangements, and give the greatest possible publicity to the announcement.

R. P. WHEELER, Chairman Senatorial Committee.

HOW THEY REDUCE.

When the Radicals talk about a reduction of taxes under their administration, they appear to forget that an official record, in relation to this matter is accessible to the press and people. Here it is as endorsed by the Secretary of the treasury:

TAXES IN WAR YEARS.	TAXES IN PEACE.
1861.....$41,000,000	1866.....$50,000,000
1862.....51,000,000	1867.....49,000,000
1863.....111,000,000	1868.....505,000,000
1864.....200,000,000	1869.....380,000,000
1865.....325,000,000	1870.....408,000,000
Total.....$792,000,000	Total.....$2,843,000,000

These figures prove that taxes have been increased three-fold by the Radicals, instead of being diminished. During the war the highest tax point reached was $329,000,000. Since peace was announced, taxes have touched $509,000,000, and for the present year are $80,000,000 higher than ever during the war. If this be reduction, let us have none of it.

ring the war the highest tax point reached was $329,000,000. Since peace was announced, taxes have touched $509,000,000, and for the present year are $80,000,000 higher than ever during the war. If this be reduction, let us have none of it.

THE RETURNS INDICATE.

Truth is mighty and will prevail; else, with the telegraph, the pulpit and to some extent the common schools, against it, the Democratic party would have long since perished from the earth.

Let any unbiased man read the election returns forwarded from Ohio, Iowa, Indiana and Pennsylvania, for the information of the public; Democrats as well as Radicals; and he will see evidence that will enforce conviction that the telegraph is against the Democratic party. Every report of a half column in length will contain a half dozen or more such sentences as the following:

"The meagre returns received indicate large Republican gains everywhere."

"The Democrats secured their member of the legislature, but they owe their success to local questions."

"The Republicans carried Gooseburg by two majorities. In 1864 the Democratic majority was four. Republican gain 6."

"The contest between Doe and Roe is very close; but the Republicans claim the election of Roe by over a hundred majority."

"The returns are scattering and undecided. The Republicans will probably carry the State by 15,000 majority."

And so on, ad infinitum. The "first flashes" are always so; but when the official returns come in, and show that there have been Democratic gains everywhere; that it was a mistake about Gooseburg; that the Democrats elected Doe by a large majority; and that the Republicans carried the State by a greatly reduced majority—when the official returns show this condition of affairs, the telegraph is particularly careful to say nothing about it. Not a word.

If the Radical party owned the telegraph; if it paid for the dispatches, in which the stabs are given, we would have no cause for complaint, but as Democratic papers share equally the expense, the use of the telegraph as a Radical agent, is an insult and an outrage that should not be tolerated a single day nor hour longer.

THE ATTITUDE OF RUSSIA.

Some light is thrown on the attitude of Russia and the military preparations she is making, by the following extracts from recent Russian and other journals:

The Gazette de Moscou says: "What is now taking place ought to make us consider the position in which war would find us. In view of the ultimate victory on the side of Prussia, and of the desire of Count Bismarck to extend her frontiers and convert the Baltic Sea into a Prussian lake, we may expect him to turn his attention to our Baltic provinces, which would enable Prussia to acquire immense naval power. In anticipation of this eventuality, every Russian desires to know what we are doing to receive the enemy. We have too much the habit of waiting until we learn by experience, and of not foreseeing the future. Thus, after the Crimean war we commenced to fortify only Constantinople and Kertch, forgetting that we cannot count on the friendship of Prussia in the future. All strategic conditions, and the course of the railroad lines, demonstrate that it is necessary to fortify Riga and Kovno—Riga as the seat of government of the Baltic provinces, Kovno to defend the railroads leading to Lohau or to St. Petersburg, and because it is the best place for a fortified camp."

A St. Petersburg letter in the Paris Liberte, says:

Turkey, despite her financial distress, is already equipping and organizing her army. She fears a general revolt in her Christian provinces. It is considered that Russia and Austria ought to be in accord on measures calculated, in such a contingency, to guard their common interests. A Warsaw letter in the Gazette de la Belgique, says:

At St. Petersburg, in the artillery arsenal, an unusually large force of men is employed making daily 600,000 cartridges, which are sent to magazines. According to a trustworthy source, the Minister of War has ordered the directors of the Warsaw and Vienna Railroad to transport troops, in case it was deemed necessary, to occupy the frontier.

A great number of artillery horses have been purchased in St. Petersburg, and a merchant there has entered into a contract for 300 tons of gunpowder. M. Nobel's factory has received an order for 800 mitrailleurs, to be delivered by the 1st of October. The Russian journals anticipate that Prussia will demand the German portion of Alsace and Lorraine, and in that case they claim that Russia should receive an equivalent concession. In order to enforce this, the army ought to be promptly organized.

Election News.

The news from Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania is most encouraging to the Democracy. The Cincinnati Commercial concludes the defeat of Schenck; and the probabilities are that R. R. Critchfield, Democrat, is elected in the Fourteenth District.

In Indiana the Democracy have gained everywhere except in the river counties, where Kentucky negroes were voted by hundreds. If the Radicals have carried the State at all, it is by a very small majority. It is reported that the Democracy have gained two Congressmen, and ten or fifteen members of the Legislature.

The news, upon the whole, is glorious.

Logan--Munn--Linegar.

A Severe but Merited Visitation.

(Correspondence of the Cairo Bulletin.)

Des Moines, Oct. 11, 1870.

Messrs. Editors:

That old, but true adage, "Honesty is the best policy," will, I think, be verified in the issue of the present political struggle. The Logan-Munn-Linegar-Pope-drummers of the "Old Thirteenth" I mean particularly the Des Moines Tribune and Carbondale News Era, are rubbing, rubbing, rubbing with all their little fetive power, to smother the indignant cries rising up from all parties in condemnation of these marketable pilferers and corruptionists. As for the Tribune of this ilk, it always has on hand any quantity of points of all shades from white to black to lay ably on according to the barometrical state of the promissory-to-pay market and the probable solvency of the stock holding Radical candidates; and the News Era is the well known cosset of the slippery Logan, even "our" Logan, who nutifies and crams it with the best of pap and the choicest of Radical pickings, how the noble "soldiers' friend" (over the left) can flinch for it. "Alas! poor Yorick!"

These two special drummers, however, nor their accompanying fifers, do not represent the people. Why, size, even Radicals, still possessed of consciences, hang down their heads at the mention of Linegar's name, as well they may.

Mr. Munn has shamed and disappointed his most sanguine friends by his refusal and shabby excuses to meet his opponents in joint debate. Except by bare denials which go for naught with candid men, he has not adduced an iota of rebutting testimony to refute the terrible accusations which meet him wherever he goes.

His Senatorial record, his action in the Perry county business—in the Union county job—in the Fuller railroad bill—in the Lake Front affair; the unparalleled and suspicious conduct that blackens his public life, sickens the heart and dishonors the very name of Legislator. It is useless for him to go swearing round the district like "Our army in Flanders" at the Register and Mr. Oberly. That only fastens the guilt more firmly upon him, if that is possible. It sticks any how.

I know personally, at least forty Republicans of this county who will not vote for Mr. Munn, believing that he is a fitter candidate for Joliet than for Congress. Political ties are loosening, and partisanship is not, nor ought it to be the sine qua non, upon which to hinge the material welfare of the country. The voters I allude to believe Col. Creb to be sans peur, sans reproche both in his private life and in his public career, and will support him. So the ball rolls. The ousting of Radical defilers, swindlers, and rogues, who have cheated the people, nursed monopolies and corporations, adding and abetting public grand larcenies without limit, participants of the plunder, is a "consummation devoutly to be wished." Artisans, farmers, and laborers earnestly desire it; and that the whole horde of Radical blood-suckers may be forevermore thrust out from participation in the future legislation of this great country is the hearty wish of every honest, intelligent man who has to earn his living manfully and not professionally steal it. Yours, respectfully,

A 14 YEARS OLD RESIDENT OF PERRY COUNTY.

Anderson and Allen in Johnson County.

"Now by St. Paul, the work goes bravely on!" Vienna, Johnson County, Ill., Oct. 10, 1870. To the Editor of the Cairo Bulletin:

The day before yesterday, which was Saturday the 8th inst., was a welcome day to the Johnson county Democracy. Gen. W. B. Anderson, our gallant candidate for Congress from the State at Large, was present and addressed in a most satisfactory manner our people. His review of the career of the Republican party was most scathing, showing the Radical steals and swindles that have been practiced on the laboring people, and are now still practiced by the Radical State Legislature and the Radical Congress, and showing that the more the said Radical Legislature and Congress steal and swindle, the harder the poor and laboring man has to dig, toil and work. And his defence of the time-honored principles filled every Democrat with delight, showing that the steals and frauds of the present day under Republican rule were not practised under the rule of the Democratic party in days past.

When the General concluded, the people's favorite, Judge Allen, took the stand and for at least one hour and a half—perhaps two hours, discussed the issues before the country in such a manner as he only can discuss them. His speech on the tariff was so able and learned that all parties admit the correctness of his views, making it plain to all that the laboring man has been, is now, and ever will be under the policy of the Republican party, laboring and toiling for the capitalists of the East.

A good impression was left by our good and gallant General Anderson, who fought under the stars and stripes during all our late war, and who gallantly led his regiment victorious over many bloody fields and who did not intend that his comrades' blood should be sold to fast Radical bond-holders in the way of high protective tariff to the capitalists, of which the widows and orphans of slain soldiers and the laboring men in the West are the victims, and the ones who have the high tariff to pay for the benefit of bondholders who never shed a drop of blood, nor sweat, nor lost a minute's sleep for the good of the Union during the war.

And there was also a good impression left by Mr. S. K. Gibson, our candidate for State Senator in this district.

You may look out for a good account from old Johnson in November next.

Judge Allen will accompany General Anderson to Stonefort, Harrisburg, and other places, and his voice and sound reasoning will tell most favorably for our cause.

Yours truly, W. J. GIBBS.

The N. Y. Times says: "Our worst enemies are to be found within the ranks of our own party. Incompetent men are placed in posts of the greatest importance, and the party is betrayed by these who ought to be an unfailing source of strength to it."

The New York Times is one of the few Radical sheets that have the courage to tell the truth.

Gen. Grant.

A TERRIFIC ASSAULT ON HIM.

Growing Popularity of the Liberal Movement.

The Hon. B. Gratz Brown, the liberal candidate for Governor of Missouri, made a speech in St. Joseph on Saturday night, that set his hearers fairly wild with enthusiasm.

After discussing the various questions at issue between the liberals and eternal haters, he alluded to the dismissal by the President of Mr. Bennett Pike, U. S. district attorney at St. Joseph, because of his being in favor of liberal principles. In this connection he said he had been one of those who were reluctant to believe that the President intended to inaugurate in the State of Missouri a system of removals from public office with a view of controlling the public sentiment of the State, that it was only upon his arrival at St. Joseph that he had been advised of the removal of a gentleman high in character, pure in integrity, of admirable legal attainments, from office because of his sympathy with the liberal movement in this State; that in response to any such action he had no doubt the free people of Missouri would find the way to make their voice heard; that they might even resort to the language of their ancestors in an old and venerable conflict, when they declared in a rhyme that had rung through the realm "And shall Trevelyan die? and must Trevelyan die? If so ten thousand Cornish men will know the reason why!" He went on to say that so far as this indicated a policy in behalf of the President and an intention of removals for the purpose of controlling the action of the people of Missouri, he had only to say that it would be utterly without effect; that for his own part he would simply this to say: That he would not represent this great uprising of freedom in our own State if he did not here and now cast down the gauntlet of defiance to the president of the United States and invite him to come on with his removals and see how far he could control the sentiments of a free people in opposition to the sentiments of peace, fraternity and brotherhood, that he had inaugurated in the beginning of his administration. So far as he was concerned he did not care the snap of a finger for the opinions of the president in this question of internal policy. He had been one of those who had helped to teach the president what freedom meant when he came to Missouri in 1861, declaring that if this war meant the liberation of the slaves he would strip off his epaulettes and abandon the service. He intended to teach him further, that freedom meant the liberation of all the white men of this nation as well as the liberation of all the black men of this nation, and that he could not go back under the specious pretenses of party policy upon the freedom of the white man, after having accomplished the freedom of the black man. Col. Brown proceeded to say that for his part, he desired here and now to throw down the gauntlet of battle to the president of the United States, and to invite him to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to the issue to the encounter, and to the issue that he would find that the people of this State were men neither to be bought nor to be intimidated, and that they would give a majority against any such sinister manipulation of more than fifty go back to